Brief Description of Event:

The Umang Club of the School of Hotel Management successfully organized the "Roots and Wings Ceremony" on 24th April 2026 in the department, aimed at rejuvenating students ahead of their upcoming examinations. The event brought together enthusiasm, positivity, and meaningful interactions, creating a refreshing environment for students. Various engaging activities were conducted, helping participants unwind, boost their energy levels, and stay motivated during this crucial academic phase. Cultural program including dancing, singing and a ramp walk was organised where students of different years wore the traditional attires representing different states and then mingling into on with the aim of representing 'unity in diversity'. This was followed by some funfilled chatpate games like Golegappa competition, making the pyramid were played not only with students but also with the faculties so as to make the event exciting and memorable.

The ceremony also provided a wonderful platform for the placed final-year students who and are about to step forward from campus to shine in the oceans of hospitality industry, this was the moment where they not only their shared valuable success tips and experiences with their juniors, but also inspired them to stay focused and confident. Overall, the event was a perfect blend of relaxation, learning, and motivation—truly reflecting the spirit of care and support within the department.
